We Are Herods: We Kill Infants

By JOHN McKIERNAN in the Catholic Worker

NEW YORK,—Probably no story in the New Testament more excites our pity than the account of Herod's massacre of the children of Bethlehem. Here is a man of such vicious character that the birth of the King of Israel arouses his passion of jealousy: a man so ruthless that, in an effort to kill this Baby, who is acclaimed in the prophecies as King of the Jews, he heartlessly decrees the death of every male child in Bethlehem who is two years old or less.

That massacre has left an indelible blotch upon Herod's reputation through the centuries.

The number of innocent children whose steel-riven slender bodies dyed red their mother's cloaks that awful day in Bethlehem was, perhaps, twenty.

Months ago the sovereign power of the United States decreed the death of an uncounted number of innocents. Hundreds have been counted dead—and their lives taken before they were 30 days old!

But the sacrifice is not yet complete. The decree of massacre was again promulgated when, according to a recent report, President Truman refused to allow the mails to Germany to be opened so that churches and charitable institutions might send food and clothing to the destitute.

President Truman would call himself a Christian: our Government would be known as a Christian Government: but the reported reason for refusing food to Germany, via the mails, was that Russia—self-appointed country of Godless—objected.

According to the National Catholic Welfare Conference News Service, thousands of German families have been evicted from their homes on one hour's notice and interned in concentration camps—in camps where there is always room for newcomers because of the excessive death rate from starvation and its attendant diseases. Elsewhere the N. C. W. C. writes of men and women evicted from their homes and jammed into freight cars, 80 to 100 to each car, and left on railroad sidings to die of starvation and cold.

But let us think of the Holy Innocents—the children of Germany, the babies that die for want of so much as one quart of milk a day; the ones that die because they have not so much as the swaddling clothes that warmed the Infant Saviour; the ones—all of them—that die because the sovereign nation of the United States decrees they shall not live.

In one German city, two months ago, 98 out of 109 babies born in that month died before they reached their fourth week. Think of that you mothers! You mothers whose travail is forgotten in the joy of the new-born, can you picture the mothers of Germany for whom the pains of birth are as nothing compared to the anguish of death so many days later?

You who bear your children to joy, what think you of these mothers who bear their children for death?

And why, why, when the signature of President Truman could put an end to this wanton massacre?

For power and ambition Herod slew his twenty innocents. To appease a Godless nation, we the United States of America, are killing our thousands. Herod made a distinction both as to age and sex. We made none. Oh, must we not trouble for the judgment of God as these baptized Innocents flock to His heavenly throne! "Whatsoever you have done to these, the least of my brethren, you have done to me!" What an awful thought.

Weep not for these innocents but for ourselves whose hands drip with their blood.

The least any American Christian can do to ease his conscience is to write to President Truman urging him to allow the mails to Germany to be re-opened. It is the minimum. It is the least a Christian can do. It is impossible to conceive of a Christian shrugging this duty off his shoulders. Indifference makes one a party to this murder of the innocents.

'My Veracity Challenged,' Says Ickes

PRESIDENT ACCEPTS RESIGNATION WITHOUT WAITING FOR PROPOSED DATE

WASHINGTON,—Secy. of Interior Harold L. Ickes resigned with an assertion that President Truman had challenged his veracity after telling him to be "as gentle as you can with Ed Pauley."

The old-line new dealer and self-styled "curmudgeon" is stepping out of the cabinet, after 13 years' of service, as a direct result of the controversy over Truman's nomination of Edwin W. Pauley, California oil man, to be undersecretary of the navy.

Ickes has testified Pauley made him the "rawest" kind of proposition involving funds for the Democratic campaign and Truman has said Ickes could be mistaken.

HAS NO APOLOGIES

In a blistering, 2000-word letter, Ickes told Truman he had spoken the truth about Pauley before a senate committee, had no apologies and asserted the president had no right to pass judgment on his varacity.

Shortly after the White House made the first announcement of the resignation, Ickes released the text of his letter and added details at a news conference in response to reporter's questions.

He said Truman knew in advance that he would oppose Pauley's nomination at the naval affairs committee hearing, but never once asked his reasons, "although I gave him opportunities."

* * * *

CORRUPT WHITE HOUSE ADMINISTRATION

The issue involved in the controversy between Truman and Ickes revolves around an offer Ickes says Pauley made to him concerning a tideland oil bill. Pauley is a rich oil man, a Democratic Bigwig in California. Ickes says Pauley offered to donate $400,000 to $500,000 to the Democratic War chest, for political purposes, in return for having Ickes use his influence with the administration to drop the tideland bill. then before the U. S. Congress. It meant billions of dollars to the oil companies.

This incident illustrates the corruption in high places. The "patriotic" morons holler "Stand by the President" he is "our government" while it is plainly shown that the Pendergast machine gangster is a ganster still.

The abject faith placed by the people in such men in high places is woefully misplaced. Those men sell the people for so much down, called pork barrel and patronage, profits in oil, the stock market & "unearned increment". FDR ruthlessly betrayed the nation and sold the people into bondage to England, as well as Russia, to satisfy his own EGOTISM of being a "history making president", as his evil ghost who wrote his speeches, Sam I. Rosenman, recently stated to a reporter in Florida: "I have had a hand in making history."

Placing one's faith in "Generals" who are trained in school to have no human concern for the lives of others and drive them to their death, as well as crippling them for life, is foolish. These "Generals", and all professional murderers, have no more concern for their victims than the butcher for his.

Vet Asks Right To Sue Nation

HELENA, Mont.,—Attorneys for a disabled Pacific veteran asked the U. S. district court for a ruling upholding their client's right to sue the government for damages resulting from his war service.

Attys. John Mahan and C. E. Pew brought action in behalf of Edward C. Commers, of Helena, as a test case on grounds that involuntary induction was "taking private property for a public use."

ATTORNEYS VETERANS

Mahan is a former national commander of the Disabled American Veterans. Pew is past commander of the American Legion.

They said an affirmative ruling by the district court would make the government liable for damages and would nullify the adjudication methods of the veterans' administration.

A pension no longer would satisfy a veteran's claim for bodily impairment if the suit were successful, they said.

FIGHTERS 'SLAVES'

The petition alleged that all pertinent laws of congress now in effect are "based on the theory that those who fight are the slaves, serfs or chattels of those who do not fight and that the bodies of those who fight may be sacrificed in the common defense without legal obligation of any kind, and that whatever is paid to or on account of our disabled is 'gratuity' or common charity, all of which is contrary to every principle of our constitution and all principles of free government."

The suit was said to raise a constitutional question not considered since the days of slavery.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Involuntary induction of unpaid Conscientious Objectors to War into U. S. slave camps violates the 5th Amendment.

The Golden Scripts

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I fully agree with what you say in your splendid article in the Feb. 11th issue of the Broom entitled "THOU SHALT NOT TAKE THE CHRIST'S NAME IN VAIN." Regardless of whatever mortal feeling of resentment or revenge we may have toward those who were instrumental in bringing on War II— or any of the wars—you must be right or else the Christ's teachings would be but idle talk. Thinking about this I took up my Golden Scripts and on page 11 I find: "Love those who appear to work against you", and on the next page this: "The sons of the worldly have their little day obstructing us though they know not its briefness; verily if they knew their conduct would be different, their aid would engulf us. So must we labor that a return of spirituality cometh to men in an age of great roarings and the glory of the Spirit manifest itself.". . . .

And on page 468: "They come unto me saying Master let us slay these dullards who would have none of Thee. Perceive ye not, my beloved, that slaughter hath no merit? For what doeth it? lo it releases the spirit to enter realms not of flesh, it worketh no punishment, it worketh release whereat no good cometh; it releases the spirit mischievously teaching it no lessons, disturbing balances of karma". Further along on same page is this: "Divine action only can mediate between eternal carnage and eternal guilt of arms militant."

I hope that "Father Terminiello" and others who are doing really good work will read your fine articles and realize that slaying is no part of Christianity and see wherein this is error and continue in the good and leave the rest to "Divine action". SUBSCRIBER

How "Christian Front" Speakers Were Railroaded in New York

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I herewith wish to thank you for the courage that you have displayed in presenting to BROOM readers the facts concerning the "frame-up" of the writer by one Isadore Ginsberg, New York head of the Jewish War Veterans. It is to be remembered that the "disorderly conduct" charges placed against me were made upon the private complaint of Isadore Ginsberg after the police refused to make my arrest. In fact, the police inspector and captain, in charge of the police detail of some 60 officers at the Christian Front meeting, tried to dissuade Mr. Ginsberg from making the arrest because there was "no legal basis upon which to make the charges."

It is further to be remembered that Judge De Andrea advised Mr. Ginsberg in open Court that the "disorderly conduct" clause was not a proper charge upon which to hold me as I was considered by the Court to be a "dangerous character". He then retired in chambers and with the aid of Mr. Ginsberg and his Jewish camarilla prepared a charge of "incite to riot" against me. To comply with the letter of the statute that "three or more" are needed to prefer such a charge, the judge made two spectators, Mr. Elmhurst and Mr. Mertig, co-defendants.

The Jews later found that "incite to riot" also was an improper charge. Hence, then "unlawful assembly" supplanted "incite to riot". We were then tried and convicted on that count on the 10th of January and now await sentence. The Court held that a meeting at which matters were discussed that displeased the Jews could "tend toward a breach of the peace" and, therefore, declared the Christian Front meeting an "unlawful assembly."

The Jew witnesses, Weinstock and Hellman, committed rank perjury in the courtroom. The Police Captain in charge of the some 60 officers at the Christian Front meeting testified for the defense. He stated from the witness stand that the meeting was peaceful and orderly and that he REFUSED to arrest me despite three requests to do so. Nonetheless, we were convicted.

I feel particularly bad because two innocent men were victimized through no fault of their own because the Jews needed them to hold and convict me. I can understand the attitude of the Jews and Communists in my instance. They well remember the pre-war flood of material that PNS (Pioneer News Service) sent about the country exposing their nefarious designs to subvert our once glorious American Republic. Now the PNS is back in the field publishing books and pamphlets that the Jews and Communists do not want Americans to read. My arrest was designed to cripple PNS. For your information THAT IS TOO LATE. PNS belongs to America's Cause and regardless of what happens to me PNS rolls on. In fact, PNS's monthly bulletin, DISPATCH, has now the greatest circulation of any publication of its kind in America. Much of its growth is due to the persecution suffered by its editor here in New York.

With the exception of Mrs. Lyrl Clark Van Hyning, editor of Women's Voice, and her group, We the Mothers Mobilize, no Nationalist group or leader took any interest in this Ginsberg farce. Hence, we defendants had to fight this frame-up in the main with our own resources. The net result is that we were convicted. If all Nationalist groups would have come to our rescue such as was the case with Mrs. Van Hyning and you through the columns of the BROOM, the Jews would not have dared to press these "bogus" charges.

You will note that as a result of my conviction here in New York a precedent has been set. The Jews have now used this as a means of placing the identical charges against Father Terminiello under Illinois law. You will recall that Father Terminiello and two other speakers were arrested in Chicago at a Father Terminiello Rally for a "diversion which tended twoard a breach of the peace."

My current plans are to take my case right up through the New York Courts to the United States Supreme Court. This will put a stop to this nonsense, else the Jews and Communists will continue arresting others who address meetings at which remarks are made displeasing to them.

This is an expensive venture. The appeal costs have been estimated at a minimum of $10,000. I am prepared to take this fight thru the Courts but will need the help of others to bear part of the cost.

I wish you would publish this letter in your BROOM so that your readers can get a first hand report of the status quo in this first case in the United States where organized Jewry has taken the law into its own hands and has secured a Court conviction on "trumped-up" charges.

The Pioneer News Service, P. O. Box 435, Chicago 90, Ill., is arranging a Defense Fund. The writer would appreciate your readers sending a contribution to the above Fund. Please do not consider this a personal appeal. It is done in the interests of the Cause so that others like Father Terminiello do not suffer the same fate as has been my lot here in New York.

With the best of personal wishes to you for all that you have done for the writer and his co-defendants, Mr. Kurt Mertig and Mr. Ernest Elmhurst. I beg to remain

Gratefully yours, HOMER H. MAERTZ
Director of Research, Pioneer News Service.

Let's Build Sutherland Dam!

KENNY RULING 'NOT NEW ANGLE'

A ruling by Attorney Gen. Robert W. Kenny's office that the Metropolitan Water district legally could provide surplus water to San Diego county without the county becoming a member of the district does not inject any new angle into local efforts to import Colorado river water, J. L. Burkholder, manager-engineer of the San Diego County Water authority, said.

"The district has always known it could use its facilities to deliver to San Diego the Colorado river water filed on by the city and county if it chose to do so," Burkholder said. "But it doesn't want to," he added.

Kenny's opinion was given in response to a question by Sen. Ed Fletcher, of San Diego, as to whether the district legally could rent its unused carrying capacity in the system to transport the water for use in San Diego county, The Associated Press reported. The ruling concurred with a previous opinion by the legislative counsel, Fred B. Wood.

The attorney general's office also concurred in an opnion by Wood that the federal government has the power to acquire water, by condemnation, if necessary, from the district, for use by federal facilities in San Diego county.

Editor's Note: The Federal Govt. has all the authority it needs to provide the Navy with Colorado river water. Let San Diego spend its efforts and money on developing the San Dieguito water supply. We must build Sutherland dam and a conduit to San Vincente reservoir to supply our needs.

Why Admit Hawaii ?

Jefferson Argued Against "Democracy" France Unready For Self-Government

To the Editor:

If our Congressmen were as familiar with the science of government as our Founding Fathers, they would not even think of admitting Hawaii to the Union.

Washington, Franklin, Hamilton and Jefferson would have objected strenuously to inviting the Japanese, Chinese and Hawaiian natives of a distant Pacific island to come into our Senate and House and HELP US GOVERN OURSELVES. The founders believed in the principle of local self-government.

On the other hand, I am sure they would have been willing to give the citizens of Hawaii (as they practically are given now) the right of local self-government.

They might have gone further AND HAVE GIVEN THE ISLANDS DOMINION STATUS.

The wiser British do not ask Canadians or South Africans to come into their British Parliament. The latter do not wish to come. Each dominion has an independent commonwealth status, under the British King and flag.

Look what Chavez, the Indian from New Mexico, is trying to do to our form of government with the "FEPC" tyranny. There are Americans who had rather give New Mexico back to Mexico than permit it to poison the American system. (However, in justice to that State, its legislature repudiated Chavez.)

The Japanese and Chinese Senators from Hawaii will in time demand that we open our doors to unrestricted Chinese and Japanese immigration and intermarriage. They will become a pest.

Thomas Jefferson wrote back from Paris in the 1780's, when he was our minister there, that he was convinced the French were unfit for self-government. Subsequent failures of their "democratic republics" proved him right.

Would Jefferson, if he were alive today, assert that the entire Mongolian race, the Negroes and Negroids, as well as most of the Russians and East Indians have a long age to travel before achieving fitness for self-government?

Lawyer Ernie Adamson of the House Committee on Un-Americanism has challenged Rivkin, the New York head of the Jewish Veterans Against Discrimination, on his claim that the U. S. is a "democracy," and cites the Constitution's guarantee of a "republican form of government."

Jefferson's argument against "democracy" has never been answered. He said "democracy" can be a success ONLY in a very small state or city, where everybody knows each other. Representative republican government could work over a wide stretch of territory.

A man living in Maine could not pass judgment upon the fitness of a man running for office in Georgia; but he could pick a "representative," whom he knew, who lived close at hand, and this "representative" could "govern" for him and pass upon the merits of the distant candidates, by going to see them and investigating their records and qualifications.

The direct (democratic) election of Presidents, which began thirty-three years after Washington's death, IS RUINING OUR COUNTRY.

(For one example, it caused the great Civil War.)

FRANKLIN'S PROPHECY

On the final day of the Constitutional convention on Sept. 17, 1787, Benjamin Franklin predicted: "This government will be well administered for a course of years, and can only end in DESPOTISM as other forms have done before it when the people have become so corrupted as to be fit only for despotic government, BEING INCAPABLE OF ANY OTHER."

Newdeal demagoguery has been and is a CORRUPTER OF AMERICANISM.

Red Negroes, under the leadership of the Communist A. Phillip Randolph, have announced plans to defeat every Republican Senator (EIGHT) who refuses to knuckle to their infamous demands for cloture over "FEPC".

C. O. Slave Camps in U. S. A.

SACRAMENTO,—Appearing to press his motion for immediate issuance of a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of his son David, C. Leon de Aryan discovered more inclination on the part of the district attorney to delay the case instead of bringing it to a climax. The judge accepted the D. A.'s explanation for not having answered petition for the writ, as ordered by the court on Dec. 28, within 10 days. The D. A. had "filed" belatedly a reply without sending a copy to de Aryan and the court accepted such "filing" as "legal", over de Aryan's objections. de Aryan was given 10 days in which to make an answer. The D. A.'s contention is that David had not asked to be transferred to a government camp where he would receive board and pay for his labors in the sum of $5.00 per month "expense money."

Since $5.00 per month violates the 5th amendment, of "taking private property (David's labor) without due compensation", this is not a legally valid answer at all why the writ against slave labor should not issue.

In the meantime the Quakers' C. P. S. Camp at Coleville, Calif., is being abandoned and David expects to be transferred to Glendora, Calif., which takes him out of the Sacramento court's jurisdiction. His father, then, will renew proceedings in Los Angeles federal court.

Communists and Strikes

WILLIAMSON CALLS FOR HELP TO LABOR'S 'HISTORIC BATTLES'

NEW YORK,—Every individual Communist and every Party club should be involved in the current strike struggles sweeping the country, it was declared by John Williamson, national organization secretary of the Communist Party.

Participation in "these historic battles of the American working class," Williamson said, should take various forms: picketing, supporting activities such as relief, solidarity action of other unions, or veterans, citizen's committees and similar work.

In all these activities the Party's work should be co-ordinated with—the activities of trade unions, asserted Williamson as he outlined "elementary responsibilities of solidarity" for Communists.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I did indeed receive the $40.00 you sent to Herman Schwinn at Christmas time and took the money to Herman. He has asked me to keep it for him—I assume because he does not wish to have that much around all the time—and said he would get in touch with me as he needs it.

Remember Pearl Harbor !

RAID DISCOVERER TOLD 'FORGET IT'

WASHINGTON,—An ex-G. I. told how he discovered Japanese planes sneaking up to attack Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941, and how a superior officer advised him and his buddy to "forget it."

The account was related to the senate-house inquiry committee by George R. Elliott, one-time buck private, who detected the enemy planes on a radar set almost an hour before bombs fell on the Pacific fleet base.

Elliott said that, at 7:20 a. m., their radarscope picked up a large flight of planes 136 or 137 miles away, 3 degrees east of north.

"I was excited at getting such a large flight at that distance," Elliott testified.

He said he did not know their identity but, within seven or eight minutes of plotting, he tried to raise the aircraft warning center by a direct phone and got no answer.

Elliott then used another circuit and raised a Pvt. McDonald, who said there was no one around who knew what to do with the information, Elliott testified. He said he asked him to find someone.

"Two or three minutes later," he said, a lieutenant called back and talked to Lockhard. He quoted Lockhard as saying the lieutenant said to "forget it."

INITIATIVE STARTS ON UNION FUNDS

SACRAMENTO,—The attorney general's office has issued title for a proposed initiative measure which would prohibit unions and other organizations from levying assessments on their members for political campaign funds.

The proposal would provide a fine of $5000 for any organization levying a political assessment or which fined, discharged or suspended a member for refusal to contribute to a campaign fund.

CONCENTRATION CAMP LIBERALS

Habeas corpus proceedings have been instituted in a number of federal courts on behalf of the suspected Nazis who were brought to this country forcibly from Latin America during the war. These men have been held here in concentration camps, without trial, many of them for years. The government at last is required to show cause for continuing to hold the prisoners.

Federal Judge Nevin in New York has ruled that he will not call for testimony on the use of force in bringing the victims to the United States. That he says, is a matter for the executive departments of the government.

If the shanghaiing of these prisoners lay within the discretion of the executive department, it follows that this is a matter about which the American people and their congress are entitled to the fullest information. To this day, neither these men themselves nor anybody else outside the administration knows why these individuals were arrested. They never have had a chance to face their accusers in open court and present a defense.

Everybody knows, or perhaps more accurately, anybody can guess why the Latin American governments permitted these outrages to be committed. Every Latin American government was looking to this country for Good Neighbor loans, gifts and miscellaneous largesse. The governments which might have protected the victims were too deeply in need of American money or too thoroly corrupted by it to dare resist.

The behavior of the state department and of the department of justice in these cases measures the depth of their degradation. It measures, also, the sincerity of the New Deal's protestations of liberalism. Mr. Byrnes is a liberal who runs concentration camps. Mr. Clark is a liberal whose department of justice defends imprisonment without trial. Mr. Truman is a liberal who lets all this happen and blesses it. —Chicago Tribune.

(Conclusion)

From this point the affairs of the Order had been conducted in their own peculiar way, characteristic of altruistic and individualized principles. Each one followed his own plan in effecting the promotion of the Order's ideas among men. At this place, shut out from the hustle and bustle of a commercial world, the Master desired to spend His days.

From this well-sheltered place it was possible for Master Yessu to conduct the great work and not only watch the movements of the Covenanters at Jerusalem, largely consisting of Iranian merchants, but take occasional journeys northward, to call to time some of the disciples who had grown lukewarm after once having tasted the power of the spirit, as in the case of Peter on the day of Pentecost. For when persecutions began to take a serious turn, Peter, in company with others, retreated to Galilee taking to fishing as the least responsible vocation. Only after many appeals to their manhood and character could Master Yessu persuade the backsliders to exercise the covenant made that they would remain true to the cause for the liberation of humankind from the diabolical tactics of man-created authorities and authoritative institutions. That such a mission would call down the wrath of all sitting in high places might have been expected, as it is by no means a small task to haul down the monumental structure of well-cemented superstitions and ignorance. Courage and holy desires alone do not suffice to take up so laborious a work as that of coaxing the illiterate into channels of reason. As to the educated, the worldly better situated, it was entirely out of the question to even approach, for once ignorance becomes clothed in the scientific garb of authoritative recognition, one may realize that there is but one step from the serious to the ridiculous. Such a condition reveals that "against ignorance gods themselves struggle in vain." To endure one must receive power and guidance from on high.

Master Yessu felt that His mission had come to an end. Unrecognized by those in authority, betrayed by the people whose cause He had espoused, and in consequence thereof had suffered, bled and "died". He no longer felt He owed a duty to the world, for His work was finished. He realized that individual effort for collectivity with a sense of sacrifice was a failure, and that all salvation, being an individual work, must be left to be attained by the individual.

In His anxiety to help the masses He had brought down upon Himself contending forces and attracted to Himself the bitterness of the inharmonious spirit always felt by the plebean, while the latter's ignorance and lower phase of comprehension rested heavily upon His shoulders as a mighty cross. To unload this He was crucified that thereby He might atone for all their acts of inconsideration. His death meant salvation to thousands who deserved a penalty for their political and religious crimes. By His death atonement had been secured for the unworthy and their just reward of death stayed. To Him death was the means of the recognition of His true position, for it brought Him to the realization that man must save himself.

A few years after His resurrection, He felt that He was needed no longer among the struggling masses. Others thru claims and pretentions took His place. More and more He found that it would be useless to bring sacrifice upon sacrifice, as each man must necessarily be left to his own fate to work out the problem of life in his own peculiar way.

Thus, with blessings of all good things, and a love incomprehensible, He left His earthly abode to have His body interned farther eastward on the shores of the great Dead Sea.

Over His grave the northwind blows the sweet fragrance of wild roses, and the breezes of the south wind fill the air with the perfume of distant locust blossoms.

There He lies, where the stillness of the night is broken only by the howlings of a jackal, and the monotony of the dry, hot summer days is pierced only by the anxious shrieks of the seabirds..

Yes, there His body rests from its many labors, while His great and noble thot lives on and on in the minds of many near and dear to His heart. (FINIS.)

Modern methods of milk distribution necessitate pooling, therefore it is almost certain that all milk now sold is infected with tubercle bacilli, dead if the milk is pasteurized, alive if not. The special T. T., milk may be free from the bacilli, but of course it comes from a cow whose blood stream has been contaminated with tuberculin.

Fortunately, not all dieticians agree that man is the Divinely appointed parasite of the cow. There are still philosophers even among scientists! There are always some who remain unmoved by the worst that tradition and big business combined can do, and who in this case, have satisfied both conscience and sense of logic by dispensing with the services of the cow.

Much valuable work has been done in children's clinics in America with diets free from dairy produce, but none more valuable than that done in our own country by Drs. W. H. White and C. V. Pink at the Stonefield Maternity Nursing Home at Blackheath, and in Somerset. Here, exceptionally fine children have been reared without the use of dairy produce. Dr. White writes: "There is abundant and multifarious evidence available of a quite conclusive kind that we do best of all on a diet entirely free from any dairy or other animal products. Moreover, such a diet is not difficult, inaccessible or more costly than any other so-called adequate diet." Referring to the Stonefield children reared without dairy 'produce, Dr. White says: "It is their resistance to infection that is most impressive. Their enjoyment of physical activity is never curtailed by fatigue. Their strength and endurance are outstanding. Their mental development is much above the average and such finer traits as voluntary concentration are more apparent." Regarding the growth of these non-dairy children Dr. White says: "In most cases this is easy and ample; the children generally are above the average in height and weight and also in advance of others in the cutting of teeth. Sometimes, however, it happens that there is a long latent period, the children meantime developing petite appearance, after which there suddenly commences a lusty growth that more than makes up for arrears." Dr. Pink tells us: "As a result of close observation, we have no doubt at all that a diet derived exclusively from the vegetable kingdom is better even than one that contains dairy produce. In the ante-natal stage the mothers who use this diet feel remarkably well. About half of them, indeed, have told us that they have never felt so well in their lives , and their superlative healthy appearance has made a great impression on relatives and friends. They have been free from the risk of sepsis and toxaemia and have at the same time been in such splendid condition that they have been able to deal more safely with any unavoidable complications of childbirth. In war-time the shortage of fruit makes this best-of-all diet much more difficult to practise, though it still remains the ideal." Dr. Pink then goes on to say: "Those children whose food is derived from the vegetable kingdom, and who take no cow's milk in the first five years, are in a class apart. They grow better, are free from all septic diseases such as mastoids abscess; also they are more alert, but less irritable. Their clear skins and healthy appearance excite comment, even from casual observers. An American authority on childrens' diet, Dr. Dorothy Lane, has concluded that 'It is less difficult to plan a vegetable diet which will fulfill all requirements than it is to plan a satisfactory mixed diet.' " (To be concluded)

What the Future Portends

THE ARYAN ORACLE SAYS WAR

By C. Leon de Aryan

Since time immemorial, at New Year's night, the sunworshippers gathered around the fire-urn at the exact hour of the change from the old year to the new to read the fire-oracle.

It speaks in tongues of fire. Those who know the cuneiform alphabet and are completely transcended from the world of animal selfishness into the world of divine THOUGHT, then in this trance, are able to project the thought-messages of the Spirit of the Times into invisible currents and direct them to the fire-urn for transcription, just as in radio-telegraphy the "unscrambler" selects the electric impulses and transfers them into visible signs upon the tape for all who have eyes to read.

Unfortunately I never dreamed that I would by necessity be called upon to read the flame-messages at New-Year's oracle, hence neglected to study the cuneiform alphabet and at present am so pressed with work that I shall hardly be able to catch up for the near future.

But since none of the present "official" Mazdaznan Temple leadership in L. A. have devoted their abilities to fill this important office of warning the Aryan race, with the meagre facilities at our command, we, then, by force of necessity, are stepping into the gap to report what the fire told us. Though we didn't read its alphabet, nevertheless, the importance of the occasion opened other faculties by which we are enabled to see clearly and interpret the message the fire gave us, for it gave us a message that puzzled this mind for six weeks, till finally we unscrambled it.

"There is no hope of peace in armed might. All who expect protection by the force of the military preparations are merely hastening their own demise and that of their next of kin. We have already the atomic age, only atomic power gives protection."

The Atom is the UNIT. The ONE, the indestructible, the source of POWER and LIFE. And that is GOD. There is no other ATOM. The physical atom is merely the reflex-unit in matter.

All living beings carry this same divine atomic nature and substance in their hearts. The "I AM" consciousness of the being is this irreducible, eternal ATOM. There is only ONE. As WE OBEY the LAW of this ONE we are safe, and there is no other security. Those who disobey are bound for destruction and no human ingenuity can protect them, while those who live up to the commands of this atomic PRINCIPLE survive apparent death even.

The flames told us that "duplicity creates illusion." Duplicity imitates the original; this duplicate is not of God but of the mortal mind, the animal mind that had a glimpse of divinity and became drunk with its power. The duplicate is mere phantom, devoid of life and disintegrates with time.

The atomic fission of our "scientists" is this duplicity, this drunkard's effect when imitating God. It does not offer security, it's a crazy bull's action in the proverbial china-shop.

"Russia, under Stalin, has come to the front, of necessity, just as Germany did under Hitler and the USA under FDR. It is the revenge of Nature against abuse of its bounty.

"Whereever the white man has penetrated he placed his faith in force, not in God; hence his rule has been exploitive of the weak and the unwary. This exploitative imperialism, of the Briton, the French, the Dutch. the German and the American, by which the "lower classes" have been held down, where millionaires flourished next to slums and serfdom, has produced puppets: Hitler, Stalin and FDR; gives power to the Sanhedrin who pulls the strings.

"Because the white man's civilization is a false civilization, the colored races, the mongrel races, are uniting to break the yoke of this false rule. In The Man from the North they are finding their natural leader. The storm is now reaching hurricane capacity. It already is creating a feeling as of a vacuum. The mind stands still. Premonitions permeate the heart of the cruel fate that is crowding all other factors into oblivion. Only he that is pure in heart AND BODY, free from self-pride, free from violence, is safe, because atomic power works differently from all previously known factors. The brutes of the earth are to be exterminated. They will exterminate themselves to make room for those who obey the voice of the small ATOM within their own heart."

Preparing For War With Russia

Dear Editor:

Do you think the four billion loan to England is all Churchill is here for? Candidly I don't!

When Churchill's tongue starts wagging a war is soon waging.

This time propaganda is to be set in motion for the U. S. to fight Russia, and it won't be funny even for those who made a gravy train or picnic out of this one.

I, for one, like reality as cold and cruel as it is. Kipling was all wet when he said: "N'er the twain shall meet." The world of today is more evenly divided upon ideals as well as wealth, than any time in any history book I've ever been able to get hold of.

Those who have followed events could give it a suitable name right now, and that would save Truman from having another slogan contest for one, like Roosevelt did in trying to name World War II.

It might well be named the (East-West) the (Capitol Communist) or (Haves-Have-nots) Our chances of having it are so promising that names will be plentiful this time.

(Perhaps "Atomic") would be the most suitable thought, for that atomic bomb would please Roosevelt down there and he could brag to the Devil that he had built a better and bigger Hell on earth than the Devil had ever seen.

But don't let any one kid you that the World's trouble Maker No. 1, Winston Churchill, isn't cooking up soup with Truman.

Honestly, JAMES B. ROBINSON

Blind Leading the Blind

I realize how important it is that we know our own future and how we must arrange the present to insure our progress towards a better life. The lack of knowledge is playing havoc.

It is easy for me, comparatively, to resist the demands and insistence of the "rule of ruin" crowd, because I have definite knowledge of my own powers as well as the nature of Life itself; the universe we are living in and what this phenomenon of Time ,Space and Causation is.

I cannot be enticed to forsake God and the Commandments by dangled promises before my nose of "four freedoms" and the rest of the hokum, because I know Life after Death, as well as Life here and now. I know the law that governs and no fool can change it with all the fool promises which murderers and thieves make to induce the ignorant masses to follow their lead. Hence the criminal Sanhedrin that controls the White House and wrote FDR's and still writes Truman's speeches, is blacklisting me among those who produce "disunity" in America. I am proud of it and will do more and more of the same.

This life here is so short we must devote all our energies successfully to live as much and as close to the Commandments as we possibly can. What we achieve in such spiritual obedience in practical life is the only thing that goes with us after death. It becomes our character, our idenity: Our passport for the next life, and there is a next life. There is nothing but Life. Death is merely a change from one plane of activity to another.

The fact that I have the courage and the wisdom to stand by Principle is the result of my previous daring to do it, even before I was born this time. And it does not matter what happens to me now, what matters is that I dare to be true to the end. That is my growth and that alone I take with me.

The next time I appear on earth, then, people will again say. "yes, he was born that way"; of course, because I made myself that way now when I was enticed by our murderers and exploiters to play their game but have deliberately chosen God's game instead.

Once you know that everything passes, but you survive it all and incarnate again and again and again and the qualities of character and tenacity you acquire become your natural heritage upon rebirth, then there is a good reason for you not to weaken nor sell your soul to the Devil, or howl with the wolves.

This earth, finally, is being redeemed by Aryan men and women who dare place the Christ above Mammon and Murder. You qualify for a place to come here again in company of the redeemers only as you hold high the Rule of God and are not corrupted, bought, intimidated or enticed by the criminals who pervert Church, State, School and Medicine. Their influence passes, but you lost your chance of segregating yourself from them and aligning yourself on the side of the Christ. Time is very precious because now you determine whom you love and trust and obey: God or Mammon.

Fight For Bill of Rights in N. Y.

(The Individualist, Danville, Virginia)

A clipping received from New York, says that Kurt Mertig, Homer Maertz and Ernest Elmhurst, were found guilty of "unlawful assembly" by three "Special Sessions justices" in Long Island City. The charge was based on an open air rally held last October 6, which, from meager reports, seems to have been called for the purpose of getting up a petition to the United States Government to restore mail service to Germany and allow American citizens to send food, etc., to their relatives there. The trio were to be sentenced Feb. 14, and no report has been received of what sentence was imposed.

Jewish and communist front papers reported the case under such headlines as; "Race Hate Trio Found Guilty"; "Anti-Semites Convicted", etc.

The National Civil Rights Committee of "We, The People, Sovereign" offered to defend the 3; but this offer was declined, and they insisted on employing a New York attorney who, the Daily Worker (New York Communist paper) is reported to have said, "Apparently had only a half-hearted approach to the job." Although The Broom of San Diego, California, reported his fee to have been $2,000.

The National Civil Rights Committee was interested because the New York statute under which the arrests were made is rather vaguely drawn, and of doubtful constitutionality. It is certainly a violation of the First Article of the National Bill of Rights. But that article of the National Constitution only restricts Congress, directly. It is an open question whether the New York statute is a violation of an amendment to the National Constitution that prohibits any state restricting the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States. It was this question that the Committee wanted to press to a decision. The "half-hearted approach" of the New York attorney suggests that he may have known that he faced a biased court, and had already decided to appeal the case.

It was claimed particularly that the defendants held a meeting with "intent to commit an unlawful act"; and the act complained of was the alleged sale of a pamphlet entitled "Jewish Ritual Murder" that was first printed by an Englishman, Arnold Leese, in 1936. Leese was imprisoned on some kind of charge arising out of his having printed and circulated certain papers and pamphlets that did not please the Jews. The pamphlet on ritual murder, is largely a record of various trials in Britain, Europe, and Turkey over a period of nearly a thousand years. There is nothing in the pamphlet that could even be made the basis of an honest libel suit in the United States. However, Leese was connected with the organization headed by Sir Oswald Moseley; and the Tyler Kent affair is good evidence that the English have never entirely abondoned their delightful old custom of throwing a man into jail on the flimsiest of charges, just because they don't like him. They, meaning the political powers that happen to have the upper hand at the moment.

MUST BRITONS FORGET THEIR HISTORY?

The Leese pamphlet gives an interesting list of about a dozen peculiar murders that occured in England during the 13th century, and are thought to have been what caused Edward I to order all Jews expelled from England about the year 1290. The word peculiar is used to denote that the series of murders had certain peculiar characteristics that admit of only one logical explanation—that they were a part of a kind of ceremony. Whether the records are truth or falsehood, they have become a part of English and European history, and the Jews certainly injure their cause when they show so plainly that they are willing to destroy every individual freedom in their frantic efforts to keep the old records from being circulated and discussed. In some cases it seems utterly impossible for Jews to understand that if they succeed in destroying individual freedom in America, it will only be replaced by the same kind of thinking that makes pogroms in Poland, and other countries of eastern Europe.

Blonde Congresswoman Dyes Her Political Opinions Red

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON (Special), Feb. 17,—My readers will recall the generosity with which I have praised Congresswoman Clare Booth Luce in time past. No one will grieve more than I at the strange metamorphosis in the political opinions of this beautiful and supposedly brilliant woman.

She seems to have DYED HER POLITICAL OPINIONS RED.

That the Reds can "get to" supposedly great leaders and cause them to abandon and forsake the old landmarks, and go over to the "left-wing" desert of bolshevism, is one of the tragedies of American republicanism.

Ten days ago a friend said to me, "Did you know Clare Booth Luce was a Red'?" I was shocked and replied, "I can't believe it." "Well, it's a fact. She has swallowed so much of New Deal Socialism that it may truthfully be said she is a 'left-wing Newdeal Republican'!"

By an unfortunate mistake in billing, Mrs. Luce was placed on the same program with that sterling patriot, Maj. Gen. Edward Martin, Governor of Pennsylvania, in the observance of Lincoln's birthday.

Governor Martin made a magnificent speech, pointing out that some politicians are playing with Communism. "They are playing with POLITICAL SUICIDE. . . . Communism teaches HATRED and RULES BY HATE AND RAW FORCE," he thundered.

Sitting at the same table, as an honored guest and speaker, Representative Luce confined her remarks largely to a defense of the Anti-White and Anti-Christian bill, the infamous "FEPC," which was hatched and nurtured by the "FEPC". Its objective is to plant Communist and other subversives in the industrial plants, with the ultimate aim of overthrowing the private employers of America.

SHE INSULTS SOUTHERNERS

Distance lending enchantment to the view, Mrs. Luce was invited by the Republicans of Tennessee to address a Lincoln Day celebration on the 12th in Nashville, Tenn.

Did she correctly present Abraham Lincoln as the founder of the Republican party? SHE DID NOT. She slandered Lincoln's memory by picturing him, instead, as a believer in "Negro equality"—social as well as political and preaching the "brotherhood" of black and white.

This in the South and in a State that sometimes goes Republican, when the white Republicans can escape from the castigation of being the "Negro party"; and in the state, whose able Senator, Kenneth McKellar, as President Pro-Tempore of the U. S. Senate was able to help in suppressing the vicious "FEPC" bill, Mrs. Luce devotes most of her speech to eulogizing the monstrous Red measure to destroy free enterprise.

Her hearers were shocked and no applause could be heard as her untruthful words came over the Radio. She pictured the "15 million (really 14 million) American Negroes" as being practically SLAVES. (They are the most prosperous group of dark persons on this earth, in fact).

Mrs. Luce delivered one of the most demagogic harrangues ever to come over the airwaves. She outdid even Eleanor in kissing, cuddling and caressing the Negro voters, appearing willing to sell 800,000 WHITE CONNECTICUT VOTERS DOWN THE RIVER in the endeavor to win 20,000 NEGROES.

She will lose 10 white votes for every Negro she gains.

Simultaneously with the Negro Coddler's appearance in Tennessee came an announcement by Walter, the Winchell, that Mrs. Luce was abandoning Protestantism and joining the Catholic church. (Connecticut was once 90 per cent Protestant; the influx of Poles and Italians have perhaps given the Catholics the edge today).

We trust that Mrs. Luce, for the sake of the G. O. P. will soon announce abandonment of the Republican party.

Editor's Note: Clare Luce lost a child thru death. The Roman hierarchy used this soul-searing event to sell her "salvation" and "save" the soul of her child. Clare is just another case of sentiment gone haywire. Since the Roman hierarchy favors FEPC as well as equal social rights, including marriage, for black and white, yellow and brown races, they use Clare to trumpet for the "cause".

Abe Lincoln on Negroes

September 16, 1859.—Speech at COLUMBUS, OHIO

"In the first pitched battle which Senator Douglas and myself had, at the town of Ottawa, I used the language which I will now read. Having been previously reading an extract, I continued as follows:

" 'Now, gentlemen, I don't want to read at any great length, but this is the true complexion of all I have ever said in regard to the institution of slavery and the black race. This is the whole of it, and anything that argues me into his idea of perfect social and political equality with the Negro is but a specious and fantastic arrangement of words, by which a man can prove a horse-chestnut to be a chestnut horse.

" 'I will say here, while upon this subject, that I have no purpose either directly or indirectly to interfere with the institution of slavery in the States where it exists. I believe I have no lawful right to do so, and I have no inclinations to do so. I have no purpose to introduce political and social equality between the white and black races.

" 'There is a physical difference between the two which, in my judgment, will forever forbid their living together upon the footing of perfect equality, and inasmuch as it becomes a necessity that there must be a difference, I, as well as Judge Douglas, am in favor of the race to which I belong having the superior position.

" 'I have never said anything to the contrary, but I hold that, notwithstanding all this, there is no reason in the world why the Negro is not entitled to all the natural rights enumerated in the Declaration of Independence, the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. I hold that he is as much entitled to these as the white man.

" 'I agree with Judge Douglas, he is not my equal in many respects—certainly not in color, perhaps not in moral or intellectual endowments. But in the right to eat the bread, without leave of anybody else, which his own hand earns, he is my equal, and the equal of Judge Douglas, and the equal of every living man.'

* * * *

"Upon a subsequent occasion, when the reason for making a statement like this recurred, I said:

" 'While I was at the hotel today an elderly gentleman called upon me to know whether I was really in favor of producing a perfect equality between the Negroes and white people. While I had not proposed to myself on this occasion to say much on that subject, yet as the question was asked me I thought I would occupy perhaps five minutes in saying something in regard to it.

" 'I will say, then, that I am not, nor ever have been, in favor of bringing about in any way the social and political equality of the white and black races—that I am not, nor ever have been, in favor of making voters or jurors of the Negroes, nor of qualifying them to hold office, nor to intermarry with the white people; and I will say in addition to this, that there is a physical difference between the black and the white races, which I believe, will forever forbid the two races living together on terms of social and political equality. And inasmuch as they cannot so live, while they do remain together there must be the position, of superior and inferior, and I, as much as any other man, am in favor of having the superior position assigned to the white race.

" 'I say upon this occasion I do not perceive that because the white man is to have the superior position, the Negro should be denied everything. I do not understand that because I do not want a Negro woman for a slave, I must necessarily want one for a wife. My understanding is that I can just let her alone. I am now in my fiftieth year; and I certainly never have had a black woman for either a slave or a wife. So it seems to me quite possible for us to get along without making either slaves or wives of the Negroes.

" 'I will add to this, that I have never seen to my knowledge a man, woman or child who was in favor of producing a perfect equality, social and political, between Negroes and white men. I recollect but one distinguished instance that I ever heard of so frequently as to be entirely satisfied of its correctness—and that is the case of Judge Douglas' old friend, Colonel Richard M. Johnson.

" 'I will also add to the remarks I have made (for I am not going to enter at large upon this subject), that I have never had the least apprehension that I or my friends would marry Negroes, if there was no law to keep them from it, but as Judge Douglas and his friends seem to be in great apprehension that they might, if there were no law to keep them from it, I give him my most solemn pledge that I will to the very last stand by the law of the State, which forbids the marrying of white people with Negroes.'

"There, my friends, you have briefly what I have, upon former occasions, said upon the subject to which this newspaper, to the extent of its ability, has drawn public attention. In it you not only perceive, as a probabilty, that in that contest I did not at any time say I was in favor of Negro suffrage; but the absolute proof that twice—once substantially and once expressly—I declared against it.

"Having shown you this, there remains but a word of comment upon that newspaper article. It is this: that I presume the editor of that paper is an honest and truth-loving man, and that he will be greatly obliged to me for furnishing him thus early an opportunity to correct the misrepresentation he has made, before it has run so long that malicious people can call him a liar."

War Declared By Palestine Jews

JERUSALEM,—Jewish resistance forces issued a four-point "declaration of war" against British authorities in turbulent Palestine.

In leaflets distributed by the "Fighters for Freedom of Israel," the resistance group stated its followers would:

1—Secure Jewish immigration into Palestine.

2—Attack British armed forces in Palestine "unceasingly."

3—Punish "the British oppressors."

4—Organize civil disobedience throughout the Holy Land.

The group is a wing of the resistance organization, "Irgun Zvai Leuni."

How "They" Sabotage Eugen Brand's Sales in N. Y.

Dear de Aryan:

Regarding your memo advising of sending Brand 800 No. 20, and asking whether this quantity suffices or not, wish to advise you that this quantity would be sufficient for the time being, due to the demoralization caused by the irregularity of your shipments. No. 20 had not yet arrived on Saturday night, February 9th.

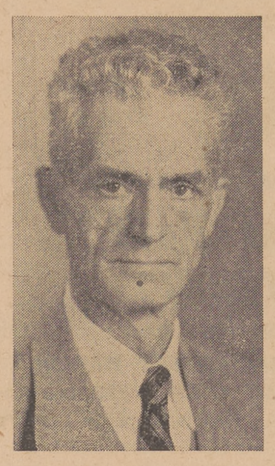
A further postponement of our sentencing has been granted us to February 28th. Mr. Elmhurst and I have secured separate counsel and we are trying to obtain a new trial. We shall probably write you about it for the next issue.

Sincerely, KURT MERTIG

* * * *

Dear Mr. Mertig:

Now we caught the "sabotage", of Broom deliveries to Eugen Brand's News Store, "red-handed" as it were. I placed 800 copies in the mail at San Diego on January 30 and, as you write, they had NOT been delivered on Feb. 9, which definitely proves that the sabotage is being done somewhere in the Post Office. The main story of that issue was The Truth About Haym Salomon, with a number of other articles which certain destructive fanatics would not want us to circulate publicly.



C. Leon de Aryan

I made two official complaints at the Post Office. One in the regular "tracing" manner, the other to the Postal Inspector; somebody is going to get caught at it. If the sabotage does not stop in the Post Office I shall take steps which at present I have not done, expecting to see results from within the P. O. Department.

This is all part and parcel of the disruptive campaign to interfer with sales in New York by Brand's News Store as well as to curtail the BROOM circulation. That's why they had me indicted for "sedition" in the first place. But it merely demonstrates the necessity of doubling our efforts to assert our SOVEREIGNITY as FREE Americans and ARYAN members of the white race. Naturally, the more they attempt to hamper me the more they advertise to the people at large that THEIR liberties are to be curtailed next. Wide awake customers of Brand's store will accept the challenge and react by buying the previous week's copy which they missed at first, due to this sabotage of mail deliveries, just to show their determination of upholding freedom of the press, even in New York, in the face of this persecution.

Sincerely, C. LEON de ARYAN

G. O. P. Called 'Anti-Radical'

Congressional elections this year will provide Americans with the opportunity to take a step "in restoring integrity and dignity to the nation's capitol and to American life." Rep. Charles A. Halleck, of Indiana, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee, told San Diego Republicans at their annual Lincoln-day dinner in U. S. Grant hotel.

"The Republican party," said Halleck, who has been making a nationwide tour in preparation for the November campaign, "sets itself up in determined opposition to the new deal, or any other radical party. We cannot have two radical parties in the United States. One is enough.

'ROAD TO SERFDOM'

"Far left of center, the new deal party of today by word and works has followed a design which, if continued, will convert this republic into something that is not a republic. Free Americans then will be following the road to serfdom under rigid governmental controls in every department of their lives.

"The road to serfdom is plain. We have seen it in other lands. We have seen it at home. We have seen it in rationing. We have seen it in restriction. We have seen it in folly. We have seen it in inspired dissension and in the unholy hate which rises in deadly fury from radicals who scheme to rule."

Am enclosing remittance $5.00 to renew subscription to Broom for another year, use balance for other purposes. — — L. B.
